

- Nearly forty percent of all comments since 2012 were driven by just three issues: Preventive Services Under the Affordable Care Act, Guidance for Tax Exempt Social Welfare Organizations on Candidate Related Political Activities, and National Interest Determination for the TransCanada Keystone Pipeline.
- The National Park Service receives the highest positive sentiment score of any federal agency.

"eRegulations Insights builds on the success of organizations such as the Sunlight Foundation to free open data, promote public participation and help agencies uncover constructive feedback on specific issues," said Stephen Sorkin, chief strategy officer, Splunk. "As governments grapple with how best to enhance citizen participation and improve transparency, providing similar access to other open data sets could have a transformative impact on government at all levels. Regulators and citizens alike can empower themselves with data-driven debate, and we hope eRegulations Insights can help show just how powerful a little more transparency can really be."
