

JIM TOZZI

Employment History

1983 Center for Regulatory Effectiveness/Multinational Business Services

1972 Executive Office of the President of the United States

Deputy Administrator: Office of Management and Budget (OIRA)

Assistant Director: Office of Management and Budget (OIRA)

Chief, Environmental Branch: Office of Management and Budget

1964 Department of Defense

Office of the Secretary of the Army: Director, Systems Analysis Group

Office of the Chairman Joint Chiefs of Staff: Operations Research Analyst

Captain, US Army Corps of Engineers

1964 Tulane University: Department of Economics and Business Administration

Education

B.S. Chemical Engineering, Carnegie Institute of Technology

M.R. Retailing, University of Pittsburgh

Ph.D. Economics and Business Administration, University of Florida

Government Organizations

Administrative Conference of the United States (2010)

EPA Environmental Finance Advisory Board (1993-2010)

Non-Government Organizations and Awards

World Environment Center, Board of Directors (1984-1994)

American Men and Women of Science

Commendations by President Carter and President Nixon

Designated as a leading policy entrepreneur

Publisher, OIRA Watch

Publications

Most Recent: Accomplishments Without Dollars, The Environmental Forum (2014)

Statement as a Member of the Administrative Conference of the US (2013)

Presidential Accountability in Rulemaking, Environmental Forum (2012).

OIRA's Formative Years: Administrative Law Review (Special Edition 2011)

Scrutiny of Data Access and Data Quality Laws, Science (6 May 2011)

Least Recent: The Optimum Mix of Heterogeneous Weapons Systems (1966) JCS

Google: Tozzi OIRA